Police Seeking Those Who Kidnapped Vancouver Chinese

WONG'S FRIENDS WISH EVIDENCE HE WAS BEATEN

Vancouver Chinese Ask that Physician Examine House-boy Held at Oakalla on Charge Following Death of Janet Smith; Violence During Time He Was Held by Kidnappers Alleged.

Vancouver, May 4.—Firm in the conviction that Wong Foon Sing is not guilty of the murder of Janet Smith, as charged by the crown, and that he knows nothing further about the mysterious death of the girl than information he gave in evidence at the last coroner's inquest, residents of Vancouver's Chinatown are rallying to the assistance of their compatriot.

This morning J. H. Senkler, K.C., counsel for the Chinese boy, applied to Government officials to issue an order to the warden of the Oakalla Prison Farm to permit a physician to examine Sing.

"Sing informs me he was very roughly handled at various times by his kidnappers," said Mr. Senkler. "They continually sought to obtain from him some statement other than that he had given at the last inquest. Sing tells me he fully expected to be killed. In fact, the boy says his guards plainly told him they intended to kill him unless he gave them information they thought he had."

De Paulo was given a sentence of twelve years at hard labor in the penitentiary.

NEW TELEPHOTO GREETING METHOD

Chicago, May 4.—The telephoto method of transmitting photographs over telephone lines was employed for the first time today in personal affairs in an exchange of photographs between Chicago and New York.

Harry Gill, an employee of the Western Electric Company here, employed the method to greet his father, Frank Gill, an engineer for the International Western Electric Company, when the latter arrived in New York from London today. Mr. Gill Sr. promptly returned the greeting.

The total time required for taking the two photographs, attaching personal greetings to them, developing negatives and transmitting messages both ways was a little less than three and one-half hours.

BEER REGULATIONS ISSUED IN ONTARIO

Toronto, May 4.—Regulations governing the sale and drinking of 4.4 per cent. beer in Ontario as laid down by Attorney-General Nickle in a statement strictly provide that the refreshment must be served at tables in hotels, restaurants and cafeterias, in full view of the public on the street and in a manner which precludes "hole in the corner" drinking in any form.

Mr. Nickle announced that the Government will do its utmost to see the licenses are issued only to those who live up to the regulations which will make the drinking of beer as public an affair as the drinking of "soda pop."

FLEET OF SIXTY CRAFT IS TO BREAK UP RUM ROW OFF U.S. ATLANTIC COAST SOON

New York, May 4.—Units from the United States coastguard of the entire Atlantic seaboard, with three revenue cutters, were mobilized at the Clifton Guard Base on Staten Island today for a new war of extermination against rum fleets lying off the coast from New Jersey to Connecticut.

The fleet comprises more than sixty vessels, armed and equipped as for battle. Most of them are motor craft between forty and sixty feet long and capable of great speed.

The fleet, which is expected to put to sea to-morrow, will operate under orders to shoot first and investigate afterward in the case of suspected rum runners.

DR. SCHURMAN HERE BOUND TO GERMANY

American Ambassador to Berlin Silent on International Affairs

Former U.S. Minister to Peking Arrived Today From Shanghai

DR. J. G. SCHURMAN

Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, former American Minister to China and who has just been appointed by President Calvin Coolidge as United States Ambassador to Germany, arrived in Victoria today from Peking. He was a passenger from Shanghai by the liner President Jackson and is accompanied by Mrs. Schurman and Miss Barbara Schurman.

When seen by The Times representative on the morning of his arrival, Dr. Schurman, generally but firmly declined to discuss the internal affairs of China or give his impressions of the recent German elections. He stated that he had been approached by all the foreign press correspondents prior to his departure for Germany, but he declined to make any statement.

This policy he had adhered to at Shanghai, Yokohama and other points en route, and he expected to have a difficult time with newspapermen when he passed through Seattle and other American cities, he proceeded to remain silent on international and controversial questions.

FOUR YEARS AT PEKING

Dr. Schurman has represented the Government of the United States at Peking for the past four years and is well versed in Oriental affairs.

On his arrival here today, he displayed considerable interest in Victoria and learned much about the city before he left the ship in company with James Forman, president of the Canadian Club, and J. L. Beckwith, who greeted the Ambassador at the Outer Dock.

Dr. Schurman expressed his regret to the delegation that he had been unable to accept the invitation to address the Canadian Club while here. Hurrying through to Washington, D. C., Dr. Schurman will first confer with Cabinet members before embarking at New York for Germany. He expects to take up his ambassadorial duties at Berlin almost immediately.

The troops were sent to quell an outbreak of fanaticism among the villagers, who burned alive in their homes two families who had refused to accept the local prophet, Ali.

STROMKINS COMMITTED ON MURDER CHARGE IN BERYL G. PROCEEDINGS

Defence Reserved and Committal Follows; Supreme Court Will Be Urged to Release Stromkins Tomorrow it is Stated.

Paul Stromkins, facing a murder charge on remand proceedings in the Beryl G. case, was committed by Magistrate Jay in Provincial police court this morning for trial before higher court. The defence was reserved and committal followed in proceedings which occupied three minutes. An appeal from the committal order will be taken, it is stated.

Evidence for the prosecution was concluded at the opening of the preliminary hearing on Wednesday last when A. M. Johnson, K.C., produced a statement said to have been made by Stromkins to the Provincial police on November 25.

On Wednesday last Stuart Henderson, counsel for the defence asked time to consider whether he would put Stromkins in the box, or reserve his defence.

Upon reading the transcript of the Wednesday proceedings counsel for the defence intimated to-day that the defence would have nothing to say at this stage. Magistrate Jay committed the accused without further delay.

Though no announcement was made in court it is an open secret that the defence will apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus asking the release of Stromkins on several grounds.

At the opening of the preliminary hearing counsel took objection to the remarks of crown counsel calling the attention of the jury to the statement made by the accused in another case, that of Rex vs. Baker and Sowash.

Objection was also taken by the defence to the admission of the statement produced by the Crown which, defence contended, had been extracted without the usual warning.

The third ground of objection intimated by the defence at the hearing on Wednesday was the statement itself was not sufficient to place a case against the accused.

Mr. Cunningham had just passed his ninety-first birthday.

Besides representing New Westminister at Ottawa, Mr. Cunningham sat for a period as representative in the Legislature of British Columbia.

PROPERTY OWNERS CONTINUE PAYING TAXES IN ADVANCE

Taxes paid in advance, at the City Hall, this year almost reached $200,000 in the first four months of the year, the total being $186,425.20 as compared with $172,439.39 in the same period of 1924. It is expected that to-day's advance collections will bring the year's total of advance payments above $200,000, as the Friday and Saturday receipts were almost $2,500 and the first days of the month generally see a high average maintained.

ENORMOUS DIRIGIBLES FOR LONG VOYAGES SAID TO BE BEST COMMERCIAL SCHEME

Washington, May 4.—The future commercial service of lighter-than-air ships lies in long distance passenger carriage over land and water such as is proposed in the plan of the Chicago-New York-London-Berlin air route. This is the conclusion which will soon be reported to Secretary Hoover by P. E. D. Nagle, transportation specialist assigned by the United States Commerce Department to travel with the dirigible Los Angeles on its test flight to Bermuda.

The next greatest requisite, says Mr. Nagle, will be the construction on a large scale of air vessels with gas cells containing 6,000,000 and 10,000,000 cubic feet as compared with the 2,000,000 cubic feet capacity of the Los Angeles.

PEACE IN EUROPE MUST BE FIRMLY BASED IF U.S. IS TO CONTINUE TO GIVE HER AID

A. B. Houghton, in First Important Public Address in London as United States Ambassador to Britain, Says Republic Willing to Help Only if War-like Movements End and Peace Made on Foundation of Goodwill.

London, May 4.—Alanson B. Houghton, United States Ambassador to Great Britain, speaking to-night before a distinguished audience here which included the Prime Minister of Great Britain, declared that unless peace based on goodwill were re-established in Europe, he feared assistance of the United States in the reconstruction of Europe must cease. He referred not only to moral aid, but monetary aid.

Coming as it did from the former United States Ambassador to Germany, following his recent visit to the United States and conferences with President Coolidge, the pronouncement was assumed by those trained in diplomacy to voice the views of the administration in Washington.

Special significance is attached to the fact that the statement comes at a time when considerable suspicion and distrust of Germany are being expressed in various parts of Europe. Particularly France, because of the election to the German presidency of Field Marshal von Hindenburg, who is asserted by some to represent those reactionary forces which are inimical to the peace and interests of at least some of the Allies.

Interlocked with this idea, it has been commented, may be the fate of the security pact proposed by Germany and warmly seconded by Great Britain as a great step toward the re-establishment of real peace.

Whether Ambassador Houghton had any of these things in mind was open to conjecture. He referred to none of them, but made it plain—only that the re-establishment of peace was essential to the continuation of assistance from the United States, but that the answer to the question whether there was to be peace must come from the peoples of Europe themselves.

As the guest of honor of the Philgrims' Society, Mr. Houghton was making his modern address in the capacity of Ambassador to Great Britain. Among the most prominent (Concluded on page 2)

OTTAWA NOT EAGER TO OPEN B.C. SEALERS' CLAIMS FOR COMPENSATION PAYMENT NOW

Issue Already Settled Fairly is Official View; History Should Be Set Aside and Merits Only Considered, Says Oliver in Demanding Assistance for Victoris Operators and Share of Revenue for Province.

By Times Staff Representative

Ottawa, May 4.—Officials of the Marine and Fisheries Department here are not very sympathetic towards the claims of British Columbia sealing companies for compensation to cover losses incurred as a result of the cessation of Pelagic sealing. They feel, in a word, that the sealers had their chance of compensation years ago and rejected it. Unless powerful new arguments can be advanced they are not anxious to open the question again.

CLAIMED MORE

A high official of the Department, voicing its considered views, explained the matter to The Times correspondent this way:

"After the Pelagic Sealing Treaty was brought into effect the Federal Government offered to give a certain amount of money to the sealers to compensate them for the total loss of their business. This the sealers refused to accept, claiming a larger amount."

"Accordingly, an arbitration was arranged for. The arbitrator was the choice of the sealers so they should have been satisfied with his verdict. He decided that they had no claim for compensation at all and no compensation was paid. Now it seems scarcely reasonable to ask the

British and French Conference Delayed

Paris, May 4.—M. Briand, a French Foreign Minister, and Austen Chamberlain, British Foreign Secretary, are not likely to meet before June 1, in the opinion of official circles in Paris. The delay is said to be due to the necessity of M. Briand's re-organizing contact with the situation at the Oval d'Orsay and also to the fact that the Allies are awaiting the inauguration of President-Elect von Hindenburg.

Little Change in French Elections

Paris, May 4.—Returns from yesterday's municipal elections throughout France tend to confirm the first impressions that there would be little change in the positions of the respective parties.

ALL DUNCAN ENJOYS
MAY DAY CARNIVAL

Foresters Sponsor Successful Function at Agricultural Hall

Crowds See Maypole Dance and Crowning of Queen

Special to The Times—Duncan, May 4.—A spirit of fun, enjoyment and good fellowship pervaded the Agricultural Hall, Duncan, on Friday evening, on the occasion of the Court Alpha No. 9208, A.O.F., May Day carnival. Great credit is due to the energies shown by A. W. Hood, who, ably assisted by fellow foresters, was largely responsible for the success of the affair.

GAY DECORATIONS

The hall, under direction of E. Plaskett, presented a gay appearance with flags and streamers. The stage was decorated with lovely garlands of lilac, tulips, etc., and on the drop curtain was the greeting, "Court Alpha No. 9208, A.O.F., bids you welcome." Schofield's specially picked orchestra provided excellent music from a decorated platform in one corner.

The supper tables and the seating arrangements were well planned by D. Tait, and the "Covician chicken, potato salad, etc.," provided for supper, under the direction of Mrs. Hector Marsh and C. M. Robertson, fully came up to all the advertisements had promised. F. J. Wilmott and W. H. Purver managed the door.

The various "turns" presented were all excellent, well carried out and enthusiastically received. The first item was a dance by Miss Doris Jewell and Miss Mabel Rutledge of Victoria, who made most dainty pirouettes and pirouettes.

QUEEN OF THE MAY

The Maypole dance and crowning of the May queen was a distinct feature and great praise must be given to Mrs. T. S. Ruffell and Mrs. G. W. Blookbank, who trained the participants and arranged all details. The dainty and charming May queen, Miss Marjorie Gibbons, with her maids of honor, Miss Mary Lister, Miss E. Hanson, Miss Helen Auchinachie, Mrs. Sealey, Mrs. Higsted, and page, Dick Corney, were escorted to the stage by H. B. Ryall, and there the queen was crowned.

Maypole dances were then gracefully given by Mesdames F. Rutledge, T. Corney, H. Marsh, A. Whan, J. Jennings, and the Misses Kate Butler, Hazel Whan, Mary Fry, Betty Paul, Grace Hattie Minnie Paul, Alice Macdonald, Gertrude Hopton, Lily Hopton, Lily Leyland and Laura Smith.

At the conclusion of this item the May queen presented Mrs. Ruffell with a lovely basket of tulips. For the next item the curtain went up disclosing Miss Betty Paul looking very charming, daintily dressed in modern costume and picture hat. With chorus of four, J. R. Underwood, H. Marsh, A. W. Hood and C. M. Robertson, she gave two songs, well suited to her pretty voice, "A Little Cozy Corner" and "Chin Toy."

Mrs. Fred Rutledge's fine voice was heard in "The Mocking Bird," with a whistling accompaniment by Miss Mackenzie (Victoria). This was both novel and delightful. In response to the encore they sang "The Bluebird" in the same manner.

The Duncan minstrels' need no introduction now, and they provided fun, jokes and songs for the last turn, in the usual excellent style. They were A. W. Hood, interloper; C. M. Robertson, H. Marsh, J. R. Underwood, E. Plaskett, W. Butler, Sandilands, J. Burchett and W. Talbot.

Miss L. Monk, B. Ryall and G. Schofield acted as accompanists.

NEW MANAGEMENT
STARTS LOGGING AT COWICHAN LAKE

Operations Expected to Tally 5,000,000 Feet Per Month

Part Will go to Campbell River Mills at White Rock

The Campbell River Mills Limited have acquired the leases of the James Logging Company Limited and the Cowichan Sawmills Limited. This transaction includes the right to cut on the big timber limits of the Empire Timber Company Limited on Cowichan Lake. The extent of these limits is 35,000 acres, estimated to produce from one to one and a half billion feet of exceptionally high-grade timber.

Logging has already commenced by the new management, of which the officials are H. W. Hunter, manager; C. K. Hunter, assistant manager, and C. G. Bockus, sales manager.

Additions to the equipment of the present operations include one eighty-ton locomotive and a steam shovel. The entire logging operation both at Cowichan Lake and Cullis Lake will be in charge of C. D. Boardman as superintendent, and the output is expected to tally up to 5,000,000 feet per month. Part of the logs will be sent to the Campbell River Mills at White Rock. The sawmill at Cowichan Lake will also operate, but at present no alterations are being made to this plant.

The Campbell River Mills Limited are also adding the tug Master to their towing fleet. The fine plant of the Campbell River Mills Limited at White Rock is in active operation and a new Ross carrier has been added to the yard equipment, the first installed (which was the first to be used in British Columbia) having given the management complete satisfaction.

COTTAGE IN ALBERNI
DESTROYED BY FIRE

Some of Contents Saved by Neighbors

Special to The Times—Alberni, May 4.—Fire destroyed the cottage of Mrs. E. Reed, occupied by James Forrest on Thursday morning about 10:30 o'clock. The fire broke out in the kitchen, but the fire had got such a hold it was impossible to save the building, and it was completely gutted. The efforts of neighbors some of the contents of the building were saved. The fire seems to have started from a faulty chimney. There was no one in the house at the time the blaze broke out. Mrs. Forrest just having stepped down town for a few minutes, and it was during her absence that the fire took place. The building was partially covered by insurance, but there was nothing on the contents.

George Briscoe, traveler for the Northern Electric Company, who happened to be in the neighborhood, turned in the first alarm, closely followed by Mrs. H. Bryant.

The cottage was a small, one-story building, built of wood, and was situated on a small lot. It was a well-kept and comfortable home for Mrs. Reed and her family.

The contents of the cottage were saved by the efforts of the neighbors. Some of the items saved included a piano, a typewriter, and various household goods.

The fire was caused by a faulty chimney, and the building was completely destroyed. The insurance company is expected to pay the value of the building and its contents.

The fire was a great loss to Mrs. Reed, but she is expected to recover from the shock. She is now staying with her family in another part of the city.

FANNY MILL SHIPS
CEDAR TO JAPAN

Cedar clears are being shipped to Japan in limited quantity from at least one Vancouver Island point. Messrs. Mackie, Barnes & Horton, who operate a shingle mill at Fanny Bay, have been awarded a contract for the supplying of cedar clears to be used in Japan for interior finish, and one ship is expected to call at the bay every month. The Ayasha Maru was the first to load. She took 2,126 pieces of cedar in thirteen and sixteen-foot lengths. The sawdust from the logs will be used for the making of dolls and other toys and a kind of pulp.

Trans-Pacific freight rates are now relatively low, and operators of Island tidewater mills hope that this condition will work to their advantage in seeking business with Japan and China.

HAVE YOU REGISTERED?

UNLESS A DECIDED IMPETUS shall be given to the process of reinstatement during the next fourteen days, several thousand voters in the Victoria and Esquimalt ridings will not be able to exercise the franchise at the next general election. Out of nearly nine thousand qualified electors who failed to mark a ballot at the last provincial election only a very few more than one thousand so far have had their names restored to the rolls.

There is here revealed an apathy on the part of a certain section of the public which is not the pleasant augury for the future of a thriving community such as this section of Vancouver Island obviously is. On entering upon what ought to be a very long turn out to be the greatest era of development ever known in this part of the Dominion, there should be considerably more evidence that the adult population recognizes the value of their privilege to take a hand in the direction of public affairs than is represented by the rate of reinstatement on the voters' lists.

It may be advisable to repeat that all those who did not vote at the last provincial general election disfranchised themselves. Their names have been struck from the rolls in accordance with British Columbia's electoral law. In order to vote at any future election it will be necessary for them to apply for reinstatement before May 18. After that date nothing can be done to repair the damage.

PROTECTION NOT WANTED

WHILE DR. TOLMIE IS preaching the doctrine of a higher tariff in the House of Commons—and unreservedly committing himself to a policy which would increase the cost of the implements of production in the West and put the extra money into the pockets of the eastern manufacturer—it is interesting to observe how the fruit growers of an important section of the Okanagan Valley are progressing without it. This is a dispatch from Summerland which the daily newspapers of the Province published last Saturday:

Summerland, May 2.—Summerland fruit growers, heavy borrowers through their organization in 1923, have become money lenders. In that year they practically had to beg the banks for financial assistance necessary to tide them over the fruit season. In the beginning of 1924 they arranged, with much less difficulty, for a $50,000 line of credit with a local bank, but only had reason to borrow $36,200, and this was entirely repaid by September 8, after which date no further borrowing was necessary. This information was given out to the growers in a statement just published by the directors.

In 1923 the Summerland Co-operative Growers' Association paid the bank $1,058 for interest. During the last season the interest account was in their favor to the extent of $236.

Six months ago the Conservatives of the Federal riding of Yale elected Mr. Grote Stirling as their representative at Ottawa in the place of the late Mr. J. A. MacKelvie. By a considerably reduced majority the seat which had been Conservative since 1908 was retained. The Liberal vote none the less suggesting to Mr. Meighen's workers that political thought in that constituency had undergone a very considerable change since the election of 1921.

There is a very definite relationship between the statement published by the fruit growers of Summerland and this matter of fact in recent political history. Throughout the whole of the riding in question, embracing as it does nearly all of the Interior's fruit growing areas, the Conservative campaigners declared in the most uncompromising terms that until the duty on imported fruit had been considerably increased, the foreign product would remain a serious menace to the prosperity of the riding.

Protectionists in British Columbia differ in scarcely any particular from protectionists in Britain. To them the essence of progress in trade and commerce—the competitive spirit and capacity—means nothing.

The purchasing power of the consumer appears to merit no consideration. Special privilege must be protected. The few must be mollified—the majority ignored—and what appears to them to be a good local case for support of the principle must be played for all it is worth and fitted into the general scheme. But the Summerland growers do not require a higher protective tariff. Their own statement implies as much.

FIRST IN B.C.

TO VANCOUVER BELONGS the credit of establishing the first municipal golf course in the Province of British Columbia. This has been constructed at Hastings Park and Mayor Taylor commenced an interesting ceremonial last Saturday afternoon by driving the first ball—the first for the course and the first he had ever driven.

Bewailing the fact that Victoria has not a civic course within street car distance from the City Hall will not do any good. When the opportunity slipped by to possess such a property it was no doubt mainly due to a fairly general lack of understanding of the exact purpose to be served and a still more general doubt about the economic feasibility of the scheme. Sometime in the future—and perhaps not very distant at that—low-priced golf on a public course will be possible for those who will still be dependent upon street cars as a means of transportation to and from it.

Throughout Canada and the United States municipal golf courses are paying handsome profits to civic treasuries. They are now being regarded as gilt-edged investments of the first importance, firstly because of the growing popularity of the game on this continent, and secondly because the cost of membership in private clubs is increasing every year.

WHAT LIES BEHIND?

IN NEW YORK TO-DAY the International Women's Council, at which British Columbia will be represented and which will be attended by delegates from forty-two countries, has commenced its sessions. Lady Aberdeen, who is no stranger to Canada, is presiding over the gathering.

Some days ago the President of the Women's Protective Committee of New York charged the International Women's Council of leanings towards one-sided propaganda and cited the Committee's belief that only one aspect of the aims and objects of the League of Nations would be presented—incidentally suggesting that the provisions of the Covenant as at present constituted are more provocative of war than they are conducive to peace.

Certain entertainment had been arranged by the New York branch of the International Women's Council; but the orders for its cancellation were received from the head-office of the organization in Washington last Saturday. The delegates will therefore follow out their programme of business and dispense with the pleasant diversions in which well-known American hospitality would have found expression.

There is no doubt a good deal more in the original objection from the Protective Committee, and the subsequent cancellation of entertainments from the head office of the body in conference, than meets the eye. For the International Women's Council, apart from its cosmopolitan membership—which would have assured it in any case—announced the fact that all views on the League of Nations and other matters coming within the Council's purview would be admitted without reserve.

Meanwhile, the impression which the outside world, since it is not yet by any means in the know, will gather is that if women can not meet in a country avowedly arrayed against war and intrigue, without friction, the feminine voice in behalf of peace among nations will not be as loud in volume as it should.

STILL ENROLLING

ALTHOUGH THE OFFICIAL drive for membership in the League of Nations Society in Canada came to an end throughout the Dominion last Saturday, the officials of the local branch intimate that they are looking forward to a very considerable number of additions to the Victoria roster as soon as the now largely-augmented membership takes its share of the educational work already outlined. It is requested that, there be as little delay as possible on the part of those who are desirous of sharing the task which the Canadian Society has set itself.

DR. FRANK CRANE
On GOOD AND EVIL

ALL the good things in the world may be said to be those things which produce growth—and all the evil forces in the world are those which stop growth.

If this be a fair interpretation, then the source of good and evil is one and not double. In other words, there is one God and not two.

All the things which delight us could very well torment us if the conditions were different. It takes three things to make an apple grow: sunshine or warmth, rain or moisture, and unity with the parent tree. Now, let an apple fall to the ground, and it will be found that the very things that rot it are the things that made it grow in the first place: heat, moisture and a lack of connection with the parent stem.

This illustrates that the agents of punishment or sorrow are the same as the agents of reward or joy. The same forces make for disease that make for health. The same agents build up, which tear down.

The difference between a dog running happily along the highway and the dog running by the side of the road is simply that in the first instance the dog is utilizing food and sunshine and air, while in the second place the sunshine and air are utilizing him.

The difference between life and death is whether you are eating your environment or it is eating you.

All things are said to work together for the good. It is just as true that all things work against the good.

A good man is simply one who has lined himself up with his environment. The bad man is one who is out of line with his environment. Life is nothing but harmony. It is being in tune with our conditions.

To get out of tune means disease, moral evil and eventually death. The forces of the universe are all streaming in one direction. When we go with them we are being advanced. When we seek to go against them we are destroyed.

It is not necessary to invent a devil for the very forces which make for righteousness are the forces which make for punishment of the wicked.

WHO'S WHO IN HISTORY TO-DAY

MONDAY, MAY 4

PETER MINUIT Dutch colonial official, arrived at New Amsterdam, now New York City, as governor on May 4, 1624, landing on Manhattan Island, which he soon purchased from the Indians for twenty-four dollars. New Amsterdam then had a population of about 200 white persons. In his later years he continued as an official in the Swedish service in America.

JOHN JAMES AUDUBON Distinguished American ornithologist, of French descent, chiefly celebrated for his drawings of birds was born near New Orleans on May 4, 1805. In the pursuit of his favorite study he made long excursions on foot through the United States. His chief work, "Birds of America," was first published by subscription, the price of each copy being $1,000.

WILLIAM M. PRESCOTT Noted American historian, best known for his "Conquest of Mexico" and "Conquest of Peru," was born at Salem, Mass., on May 4, 1798. While an undergraduate at Harvard he became nearly blind because of a prank of a fellow student; notwithstanding this, he made extensive researches, employing a reader and using a special writing-case.

THOMAS HENRY HUXLEY Eminent English biologist, the seventh son of a seventh son, was born near Exeter, on May 4, 1825. With practically no education in a formal sense, he was recognized as one of the greatest scientists of his country. He was for thirty-one years professor of natural history in the School of Mines at London, where he exercised a great influence upon scientific thought. Among his works are "Evidence as to Man's Place in Nature" and "Evolution and Ethics."

RE UPLANDS BY-LAW

To the Editor:—I have been asked a number of times why Uplands Limited should be treated differently from any one else, why all this trouble.

The answer is very short: That due to its agreement with the Municipality of Oak Bay, Uplands Limited occupies an entirely different position from that of any other ratepayer in the municipality.

If some of the ratepayers would grasp this fact it would clear away a lot of ambiguity.

HERBERT CARMICHAEL, 1256 St. Denis Street, Oak Bay, May 4, 1925.

LAMPSON SCHOOL CHOIR CONCERT

To the Editor:—Keen disappointment was felt by fifty or more children, their parents and a large number of ticketholders (myself included) when the concert, which was to have taken place on May 1 was cancelled. The trustees decided to refuse the use of the auditorium, although fully aware of the disappointment and trouble and disappointment that would result from the principal to support that person who was to have been such an object as a school concert would be readily granted? Was not the auditorium built for the use of the pupils and for just such occasions? I should have thought this high-handed action would have called forth a storm of protest; in voicing mine, however, I feel sure I am expressing the views of many Esquimalt residents. It will be a great pity if the choir and their leader are allowed to be discouraged in their excellent work. Cannot something yet be done to make it possible for the concert to be given at a later date?

UPLANDS BY-LAW AND MR. CARMICHAEL

To the Editor:—Mr. H. Carmichael at a public meeting stated "If Oak Bay does not pass the Uplands by-law the Municipality of Oak Bay will be up against a sea of trouble and at least will have a lawsuit on its hands."

I would like to ask Mr. Carmichael to fully explain such a statement, as it is the first time I ever heard of how a creditor can get into trouble and be forced into a lawsuit unwillingly.

The municipality is not by law bound to take over Lot X, the roads and improvements, and therefore can not either be forced into a lawsuit or into arbitration, but the municipality, if it adheres to the provisions of the Municipal Act, can not avoid payment of taxes due from the company, and in default sell all the lands, including Lot X, of the Uplands Company.

The only way I see in which the municipality can unwillingly be forced into a lawsuit is, if the by-law is passed and the Uplands Company, for under clause eleven of the proposed by-law, the municipality would bind itself as a party to the agreement with the Uplands Company to "maintain the present developed portion of Lot X, including the parks and squares already developed at a standard equal to the average standard of maintenance maintained by the company in respect thereof." This clause may lead to all sorts of trouble and lawsuits.

I ask why should the municipality be bound to maintain the roads and improvements in Uplands to any higher standard than any of all other streets and utilities in the municipality.

Let the public hear from Mr. Carmichael what he means by this threat of lawsuits and trouble.

R. ROSS SUTHERLAND, Victoria, May 2, 1925.

CLOVER POINT SHOOTING

To the Editor:—Attached is a copy of a letter which I have sent to Mayor Pender regarding the Clover Point Rifle Range. Will you please publish same in The Times and oblige?

G. B. JOHNSTON.

Re Rifle Range at Clover Point

Mayor J. C. Pender, City Hall Victoria, B.C.

Your B.C.—I have a letter from the City Clerk written on April 22, instant, which I only received to-day (on account of being out of the city at present), in which I was told that the City Council has instructed you to take certain action regarding the shooting at Clover Point Rifle Range, and to interview the military authorities with a view to restricting same.

In reply would say, "For what we are about to receive, may the Lord make us truly thankful." Kindly convey to the council my thanks and please inform them that their stand on this question does not satisfy the people, and is a disappointment to me and to others. Please tell them also that we looked for sympathy and help from our elected representatives, and if none is forthcoming we may have to look elsewhere. We do not want to take this matter into municipal or federal politics—unless we are forced to—but we are determined to have the infernal roar of shot for 245 days in each and every year. We are fighting for our homes, and when men have to do that they are liable to go a long way to gain their ends.

I will not be back to Victoria for several weeks, but if I was home at present I would certainly get some of my neighbors to go with me to the chief of police and ask him to arrest the members of the rifle clubs if they disturb the peace further at Clover Point. Your city by-law prohibits the firing of arms inside the city limits, if I cannot have the disturbers arrested, your by-laws are no good.

There is also the city's liability to be considered in allowing and encouraging the council members of the public nuisance—and for depreciation to our property and homes because of it. I think there is room for less action in this matter. I know one instance where a husband has to sometimes take his delicate wife out of her home and away to some other part of the city while the shooting is being carried on. I went to Victoria because it was spoken of as an ideal, orderly, and healthy city to live in. From my experience

KARK'S

HYPOTEA

The Triumph of Expert Tea Blending Sold by Grocers throughout Canada

It does not seem to be, in that the City Council encourages a public nuisance within the city limits that would not be tolerated in any one horse town in Canada.

There is a big promenade traffic on Dallas Road on Sunday afternoons and on holidays, and I have counted as many as 150 cars per hour passing. Many pedestrians, autos and sight-seeing cars. I have also noticed women pressing their fingers into their ears in an endeavor, I suppose, to lessen the shock of the explosions.

Why don't the rifle clubs go to the range built for them by the Dominion Government, and not create a bad feeling against themselves and the City Council? I wish the rifle clubs all kinds of good luck. Shooting is a good clean sport, but should not be allowed in the vicinity of residences or where it is considered a public nuisance and dangerous.

I respectfully ask the City Council to again consider our complaint and grant us relief, and oblige.

G. B. JOHNSTON, 1320 Dallas Road, April 28, 1925.

Another Success for Humidity Gauge

For the second time, since its installation at the Dominion Meteorological Station at Gonzales, Victoria's humidity gauge has scored a decided success. To-day Superintendent F. Napier Denison telephoned the fire department that the air was dry, rapidly and that fires might be expected at any time. Within four minutes and a few odd seconds from the warning, fire sprang up at premises on Burrard Avenue, the blaze being quelled without incident. Through experience with the gauge it has been shown that when the reading drops below 30 any outbreaks of fire may be regarded as seriously apt to spread. This advance information is found of great service to the fire department.

HEALTH OF DISEASE VARICOSE VEINS

The flow of blood in a vein is always toward the heart, while the flow in an artery is always away from it. The force of the stream in an artery depends upon the pumping action of the heart and the arterial walls are built especially strong, to withstand the pressure. The force in the veins is consequently very low; the walls are thin and unlike an artery, are liberally supplied with valves, to help sustain the column of blood and to break its weight into several sections. People who walk a great deal do not, as a rule, develop varicose veins; it is a condition found in clerks rather than in postmen, because the latter assists the flow of blood by the actions of his muscles, whereas in the former, who stand for long intervals, muscular assistance is lacking, and the full force of gravity is allowed to act for long intervals.

The valves first feel the strain and eventually become defective, the full pressure must then be borne by the thin-walled veins. They, in turn, eventually yield, become distorted, tortuous and enlarged, and stagnation of blood in the limb is a consequence, manifested by swollen ankles, varicose eczema, and ulcers. Such dilated, tortuous thin-walled veins are said to be varicose. They are of course most common in the lower limbs, but varicose and hemorrhoids (piles) are merely bunches of varicose veins.

The greatest danger of varicose veins is in accidentally knocking the dilated vein against something, such as the leg of a chair; this often breaks the vein and leads to considerable bleeding and disability. Should such an accident occur, firm pressure must be applied at the very site of the break, not above it as in the ordinary cut.

The care of varicose veins and the aches and pains, rashes and ulcerations which accompany them, is largely one of transferring the flow of blood to the arteries.

o blood from the superficial varicose veins to the deeper veins in the muscles which are more supported and usually healthy. This is done by means of suitable support or removal of the superficial veins by operation. Relief may be obtained by going to bed for a month or more with the part so elevated that the force of gravity is towards the heart rather than away from it. This relieves the tissues of the stagnant blood. Having accomplished this, recurrence must be prevented by suitable treatment.

WONG'S FRIENDS WISH EVIDENCE

Positive denial of the allegation that Sing had his clothes and effects bundled up ready for flight when the kidnappers came suddenly on him in the Baker home on the night they spirited him away is given by Mr. Senkler.

LOOKS FOR ACQUITTAL

"There is absolutely no truth in any such statement," declared Mr. Senkler to-day. "It is highly improper that such assertions should be made because the public mind would be poisoned against the boy in advance of any hearing accorded him. I am firmly convinced by all the information in my possession that the boy is not guilty of the murder of this girl and that his innocence will be established in due course."

"Chinese friends of Sing are insisting the boy be examined by a physician in order that we may have expert evidence respecting the effects of the bodily violence which the boy declares he suffered at the hands of those who abducted him on March 20 last," said Mr. Senkler. "We have a right to such an examination and I fully expect the necessary order will be issued to-day."

KIDNAPPERS SOUGHT

"According to statements emanating from the Department of the Attorney-General, the Provincial Police are making every effort to apprehend those guilty of the kidnapping of the Chinese boy. Just what progress is being made in this direction is impossible to learn."

WERE NOT WARNED

Attorney-General Manson vigorously denied any of his officers had had any part in the kidnapping of Sing or had any knowledge that he was to be abducted.

K. B. Jackson, K.C., commissioned by the Attorney-General to take special charge of the death mystery, is expected in Vancouver to-day or Tuesday.

MRS. J. EDWORTHY KIDNAPPERS DIED THIS MORNING REVEAL WONG'S STORY

She is survived by her husband, who held the office of secretary of the Victoria Board of Trade from 1899 to 1920 and was subsequently appointed treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, a post he still holds; one daughter, Miss Emily B. Edworthy, at the family residence, 59 Menzies Street; three sons, Frederick B. of Vancouver; Robert B. and Harold B. of this city, also three sisters, Mrs. James Porter, Mrs. Beaumont-Boggs and Miss Edith Richardson, all of this city.

RETAIL BUSINESS IS NOW A SCIENCE, DECLARES MANAGER

A. J. Watson of Hudson's Bay Company Tells Gyros of Development of Stores

Members of the Gyro Club were to-day guests at the Hudson's Bay at their luncheon. After enjoying an excellent repast the clubmen were conducted over the large store and shown the various departments.

A. J. Watson, manager of the store, in addressing the Gyros, referred to the fact that the Hudson's Bay Company was celebrating its 25th anniversary, which he regarded as a wonderful record for a commercial enterprise.

Regarding the Victoria store, Manager Watson stated that it had a floor space of 100,000 and one-half acres, employed 300 men and women, had a monthly payroll of $25,000, and made local purchases to the amount of $300,000 a year.

Mr. Watson made an appeal to the Gyros to consider the retail of goods as an industry, rather than the mere handling over of goods to the consumer.

GREATEST IN CITY

"The retail industry is the greatest we have in Victoria," said Mr. Watson. "It employs more people, has the largest payroll, represents the largest investment in stocks and merchandise, and is the backbone of taxes and insurance. The retail business to-day has developed into a science, and every man and woman is a salesman and a businesswoman."

President Harold Buttress thanked Mr. Watson for the hospitality shown the Gyros.

Joe North called for volunteers to help him put the grounds at the B.C. Protestant Orphanage in shape for the youngsters to play. Joe received promises of help from the Gyros.

Detailed Account of What Chinese Said Under "Third Degree" Reported Coming to Attorney-General

Attorney For Accused in Jail Gets His Story of How He Was Kidnapped and Mysteriously Held

Attorney-General Manson said this afternoon that he has not yet received the detailed report of what Wong Foon Sing is supposed to have told his kidnappers while he was in forty-two days' captivity in the Janet Smith case.

Word has come from mysterious sources in Vancouver, which so far have given no reliable indications of being close to the kidnappers, that the Attorney-General would be furnished with a full report of what Wong is supposed to have said while he was under six weeks of unceasing "third degree."

He Tsang, Chinese consul at Vancouver, came to Victoria this morning to interview officials about the case.

From the secret sources in Vancouver from which information has been coming while the kidnappers were on their long "third degree" vigil, it is intimated that the report of what Wong is supposed to have told them under pressure, besides being furnished to the Attorney-General, will be printed, in some way or other, and spread broadcast, so that the public will have the benefit of what they say they have gathered.

Latest information about the kidnapping party, which is supposed to have been managed by a private detective agency, employed by some unidentified persons.

PERSONS REPORTED SHADOWED

At Okalla jail, where Wong was lodged following his sudden reappearance, his keepers stated that he is not apparently suffering from the effects of the beatings he is said to have received at the hands of his captors while they were giving him the "third degree."

The police are said to have temporarily diverted their attention from the murder riddle to solve, if possible, the mystery of who kidnapped Wong. Several persons are being constantly shadowed, it is said, under suspicion that they are the abductors.

TELLS HOW HE WAS TAKEN

For J. H. Senkler, K.C., his lawyer, Wong in his "third degree" prison has related the story of his kidnapping. According to Mr. Senkler, Wong says that he was in the Cedar Avenue home of F. L. Baker and his wife the night of March 20, dressing to go down town to dinner. This was about 7 o'clock. While he was dressing he heard door knocking and went outside to see what was the trouble. He found nothing and went back into the house and finished dressing.

When he emerged again later he saw two men on the street and their demeanor alarmed him. He stepped into the basement. One of the men followed him. The man had his face covered.

"Who are you?" Wong asked.

"No answer and at that moment a second man, also masked, seized the Chinese by the throat."

WATCHED OVER WITH PISTOLS

Working swiftly, the two men bound and gagged their captive, put a sack over his head and carried him to a waiting motor car.

For about an hour he was driven around and then he was taken out of the car and carried to an abandoned stable, the windows of which had been boarded up. He was then unbound and told to make himself comfortable.

From that time on, during the entire forty-two days of his captivity, according to Mr. Senkler, the Chinaman was kept constantly under guard. At all times, two masked men armed with pistols watched over him. The guard was changed every two hours and who any of the men were Mr. Senkler says Wong does not know.

PRODDED WITH GUNS

The captive was continually questioned as to the Janet Smith murder and was frequently beaten and otherwise abused by his guards, he told Mr. Senkler.

He was not only kicked and prodded with their pistols but on several occasions was hit over the head with their guns, he said.

Mr. Senkler declared that one of Wong's eyes is still discolored and that he is still in great pain.

During the whole time, he said, although he repeated over and over all he knows about the Janet Smith murder, his story of the tragedy as it was told at the inquest remained unchanged, according to Mr. Senkler.

Unable to get what they apparently expected from the Chinaman, he told Mr. Senkler, his captors blindfolded him early Friday morning, put him into a car, drove him about for an hour and then set him down on Marine Drive in the outskirts of Vancouver.

The police claim to know the identity of one of Wong's abductors, West Saanich. The late Mr. Davis was a native of England, but had resided in Boston for a number of years and came to this Province in 1912. He is survived by one daughter, Constance M. Davis at home, and one son, W. Harold Davis of this city, also a grandchild. He was a member of the 11th C.M.R. and went overseas with that unit. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon from McCall Bros' Funeral Home and proceed to Christ Church Cathedral, where service will be held at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. L. Nixon of St. Michael's Church will conduct the service, after which the remains will be laid to rest at Ross Bay Cemetery.

The death occurred at the family residence, "Westbourne," yesterday of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Devereux, widow of Capt. John Devereux and daughter of the late William Laidlaw Noble of Mohill, Leitrim Co., Ireland. Funeral services will be private and it is requested that no flowers be sent.

After a short illness the death occurred in St. Joseph's Hospital early Sunday morning of Mrs. Alice Edith Limer, aged fifty-five. She was born in Norwich, England, and had been a resident of this city for the past four years. She is survived by her three daughters, Mrs. Muir Stewart, West Summerville, B.C., Mrs. C. C. Chittenden, and Miss Alice Limer, both of Victoria, also five grandchildren. The remains are resting at Sand's Funeral Parlors, where funeral service will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

With the barometer rising, there is every prospect of very warm dry weather for the next few days, according to Superintendent Division of Gonzales Heights Observatory, and he issues a warning concerning the danger of grass and forest fires.

The Attorney-General stated that all the evidence which his department has will be placed on the table at the preliminary hearing, and to divulge any of this at present would hinder the work being done. He admitted that his department had decided to arrest Wong Sing several weeks before the abduction, and that the kidnapping had hindered the police work very much.

FOURTEEN MANNEQUINS MAKE SCINTILLATING PICTURE IN CAPITOL THEATRE SHOWING

"The Dressmaker from Paris" as Name Implies Has Wonderful Display of Latest Modes.

"The Dressmaker from Paris," a Paramount picture, which marks Leatrice Joy's return to the screen after an absence of almost a year, is said to present a parade of beauty and fashion which far surpasses anything that has yet been brought to the screen. And it will play it the Capitol all this week.

Fourteen mannequins, chosen from world centres of wealth and fashion for their surpassing beauty, wear luxurious gowns and costumes, created especially for this picture by one of the foremost designers of Paris, brought to Hollywood expressly for this purpose.

"The Dressmaker from Paris" is an original screen story by Adelaide Hollison and Howard Hawks. Miss Joy and Ernest Torrence are featured. Others prominent in the cast include Allan Forrest, Charles Crockett, Rosemary Cooper and little "Spec" O'Donnell.

According to Paramount, this production is a forerunner of the smartest fashions of the coming season and is produced on a lavish scale that should make it one of the most striking pictures of the year.

Miss Joy is "The Dressmaker" in the picture, of course, and the fourteen beauties are her models, who exhibit her creations to the citizens of the little town of "Clarion, Ill." where she gives a fashion show to stir up trade for the Emporium, the department store, owned and managed by the close-fisted Angus McGregor, played by Torrence.

Forrest is leading man in the production. Miss Joy first meets him as an army captain in France, and later as junior partner in the Emporium. Adelaide Hollison is credited with the screen play.

"Men and Women" Coliseum Showing From Belasco Play

Richard Dix and Others Known to Film Stardom Play in Cast

Richard Dix, Neil Hamilton, loaned to Paramount by D. W. Griffith, Claire Adams and Robert Edeson are featured in William de Mille's latest production for Paramount, "Men and Women," now at the Coliseum Theatre.

"Men and Women" is an adaptation by Clara Beranger of the successful stage play by David Belasco and Henry C. DeMille. In the picture Dix has the role of a young bank cashier, who borrows his company's securities to make a "clean-up" in Wall Street. After "Manhattan" and "Too Many Kisses" Dix is one of the most popular stars of the screen.

Hamilton, another most popular leading man, plays Dix's assistant in the production. He is in love with his superior's wife, played by Claire Adams, and doesn't put himself out at all to keep it a secret.

Miss Adams, who made her debut in Paramount pictures in "The Bad Set," also a William de Mille production, is well cast as Agnes Prescott, the luxury-loving young wife of the cashier. It is her longing for the luxuries of life that leads her husband to borrow bank securities and get himself into a bad scrape.

Edeson, seen in "The Golden Bed," the William de Mille film, "Locked Doors," and others, is cast as the banker in "Men and Women." Henry Stephenson has the role of a broker, who lets Dix in on a "sure thing" on the market, only to go bankrupt himself when the deal falls flat. Florn Finch, of John Bunny Comedy fame, has the part of Miss Adams's newly-rich aunt from the West. She starts no end of trouble in the Preston household when she arrives and tells Mrs. Preston that she should have married someone with a little more business ability than the plodding Will. Agnes Adams begins thinking that perhaps this is true and—but that's for the picture to tell.

"Simple Lifers," which is this week's stage offering at the Coliseum Theatre, will prove to be a comedy which it will be hard to beat. The bulk of the comedy has been left to the ladies in the persons of Yvonne Bellby, Eileen Alwood and Eva Hart, all of whom are to be seen in entirely new characters. Ernie Petch has some good singing, as has also George Brydson, while Reginald Hincks will be in his favorite role of a Johnnie. The situations are said to be screaming and the music in a class by itself.

GIRLS' AUXILIARY CONCERT TO-NIGHT

The Girls' Auxiliary of Christ Church Cathedral has arranged an interesting programme for an evening's entertainment in the Memorial Hall this evening at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be devoted to the missionary work undertaken by the auxiliary. The programme includes the following items:

Instrumental Trio: "Dreams of Love." List, The Misses Bucklin; Vocal Solo: "Blackbird Song." Cyril Scott, Mrs. Styles Schi; Recitation: Selected, Mrs. Wilfred Ord; Piano Solo: "Romance," Sibellus, Miss Malsie; Grinnond; Sketch: "The Reason Why," Miss L. K. Brown, Mr. W. Bruce Bredin; Vocal Duet: Selected, Miss K. Davies and Mr. J. Merrick; Violin Solo: Selected, Miss Gladys Hinton; Vocal Solo: Selected, Miss Ruth Melville; Piano Solo: "An Impromptu," Schubert, Miss Dorothy Leonard; Vocal Solo (old fashioned songs in costume), Mrs. Styles Schi; Sketch: "The American Widow," Miss Laura Macklin and Mr. W. B. Bredin.

EARTHQUAKES RECORDED

Washington, May 4.—Two earthquakes were recorded yesterday on the instruments at Georgetown University. The centre of the first was estimated by Father Torndoff, director of the laboratory, at more than 8,000 miles from Washington, while the second also was centred at a great distance.

CANADA'S NATIONAL SINGER

Madame Lugrin Fahey, Canada's national soprano, who is to appear in an unusually attractive programme at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Tuesday evening, May 5, after an absence from the city of three years, is never happier than when among children.

On several occasions while singing in Eastern Canadian cities, Mme. Fahey has given special programmes at the high and technical schools. Although her youthful hearers are strictly uncritical and effusively appreciative, the famous singer takes special pains to make her programme at the schools fully understood by the children.

"To see the children's faces on these occasions is sufficient recompense for the little extra trouble taken to give brief explanations of the why and wherefore of my numbers," says Mme. Fahey.

"I always tell the children something about the song I am going to sing, or about the composer. By this means I secure their interested attention from the outset. I find this method not only worth while from an educational point of view, but because it fixes in these young minds the memory of the songs I sing. It gives them something of a personal touch with both song and singer. Next time they hear the song it means far more to them, and it gives them a sound appreciation of what good songs really are, and cultivates their love of music."

Ottawa Committee To Hear Petersen

Ottawa, May 4 (Canadian Press)—Interest in the capital this week probably will centre around the House Committee on Ocean Rates, before which Sir William Petersen and W. T. R. Preston will give evidence. Sir William likely will be examined on the subject of ocean rates, generally—and the contract between himself and the Government in particular, while Mr. Preston's evidence will be along the lines of his report, which charged that ocean rates, as controlled by shipping conferences, worked to the detriment of Canadian trade.

BANK CHANGES

Prince Rupert, May 4.—H. St. G. Lee, for six years manager of the Bank of Montreal in Prince Rupert, has been advised he is to be transferred to the Calgary office, where he will take up the duties of assistant manager. Mr. Lee's successor at the local branch will be D. Patterson, who is at present stationed at the Calgary office.

'Boston Blackie' Is Melodrama At Playhouse

Drury Lane Production Presented This Week by Frank Morton Company

With a great train robbery as its central theme, "Boston Blackie," a thrilling Drury Lane melodrama, begins a week's engagement at the Playhouse to-night. This production will be a decided departure for the Frank Morton Company, which has been successfully presenting musical comedies at the popular Yates Street theatre, and with the entire cast in dramatic roles should prove a novelty for Playhouse fans. Frank Morton appears as the "Outcast," a role that calls for a fine artistic perception of character values. Gladys Vaughan is the heroine, with Roy Earl the wrongfully accused hero. Dave Dumbleton, in the title role of "Boston Blackie," is a villain who, in his sheep's clothing, makes love to the railroad president's daughter (Hilda Cooke), at the same time plotting and scheming the celebrated express robbery on which the story is based. Stanley Mackay, as Jim Bludso, is the trusty express messenger. "The Scarlet Pimpernel" an all British production, is the screen offering at the Playhouse this week.

Poisoned Liquor Killed Four Men

Minneapolis, Minn., May 4.—The bodies of three men, apparently killed by poison liquor, were found grouped about a dining-room in the home of one of the victims here late Saturday. A fourth man was found unconscious in the yard at the rear of the place, and died shortly afterwards. The dead: William Maher, A. Cooper, James Castle, restaurant cook, and Edward Savage, a laborer. When police entered the home the three bodies were found sitting in attitudes of life about a table on which was a pint flask empty except for a thimble full of colorless liquid.

GLORIA SWANSON PRESENTS WONDERFUL SPECTACLE IN FILM DRAMA AT DOMINION

"Madame Sans Gene" is Story of Bonapartist Circles in Colorful Republican Days.

"Madame Sans Gene," Gloria Swanson's new paramount picture, which comes to the Dominion Theatre to-day, is a real screen event. The entire production was filmed in Paris with the co-operation of the French Ministry of Fine Arts.

Charles de Roche, Franco-American leading man, heads the cast playing in support of the star.

The story opens in a laundry on Rue St. Anne, where "Madame Sans Gene" does washing for the famous and obscure of Paris. Among the latter is young Napoleon Bonaparte with cast political ideas but a very scant income.

Sans Gene launders for Bonaparte never asking or taking money until he becomes Emperor of France. Several years later Lefebvre, an army sergeant, who has married Sans Gene, distinguishes himself in the Army of Napoleon Bonaparte and is awarded the baton of Field Marshall by the emperor. A title—Duchess of Dantzig—gives Sans Gene a place in Napoleon's court, but the rigid formality of court life proves irksome to the pretty little laundress-duchess, who repeatedly, although innocently enough, breaks some of the sacred rules of what to say and how to act in court.

Severe as the Emperor would like to be concerning Sans Gene, she manages to win more than a smile from him by her imitations of the stiff and stuffy women of the court—an episode that is bound to recall one of the most amusing scenes in her great success, "Manhandled." And it is by thus establishing herself so strongly with Bonaparte that Sans Gene is enabled to take a dominant part in the domestic rift between Napoleon, Empress Louise and a certain Count Neipperg, the climax of the great play.

The Empress, runs the story, is seemingly mixed up in an affair with Neipperg and has been ordered to leave the country by Napoleon. In confidence, the Count tells Sans Gene that she wants to see him before she leaves, and that he intends risking his life to carry out her wish. She warns him to be careful and when word is brought to the Emperor that he is entering the castle by a secret staircase, Sans Gene manages to straighten out matters by faking a letter from the Emperor to her father in Austria, requesting him to recall Neipperg and professing her love for Napoleon. The Count is pardoned and Sans Gene is herself more firmly established than ever in the Emperor's favor.

NEW SETTLERS ARE BEST TYPE YET BROUGHT HERE; MANY WILL SETTLE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

By Times Staff Representative

Ottawa, May 4.—Canada is adding to her population this year the finest type of immigrants ever brought into this country. This is the opinion of officials of the Immigration Department who have met the British settlers who are coming to Canada now under new Empire settlement scheme, negotiated in Britain last year.

Almost all the settlers are farmers, carefully selected from among Britain's agricultural population. Only specially-chosen men and their families are being brought in under the settlement scheme and the results of this policy are showing themselves already in the high physical and mental standard of the newcomers. Never before have such desirable immigrants been systematically placed in the Dominion.

BEST SINCE WAR

Immigration officials still anticipate that this year will be the best since the war for Canadian immigration. The fact that immigration was light during the first months of the year was no indication that this year's total will not outstrip that of the previous years following the war, they declare. The immigration tide is being carefully regulated now so far as the new settlement scheme is concerned, and the Government was not anxious to hurry the settlers here in such cold winter climates as that of the prairies, while snow was still on the ground. From now on, however, the selected immigrants will come in a fairly steady stream.

The British farmers are settling all over the West. Many of them plan to go and make homes for themselves in British Columbia. Through the machinery created under the settlement scheme each settler knows exactly where he is going when he comes to Canada, so that confusion and disappointment will be cut down to a minimum. BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and Wizzie

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Where is Wizzie?" called Mrs. Uncle Wiggily one day to her new husband as he hopped up the front garden path toward the hollow stump bungalow. "Where is my little boy Wizzie? I want him to come in and wash his face. Have you seen him?"

"No," answered Uncle Wiggily. "I haven't. I just saw his twin sister, Weezie, and she said she would take me to find Wizzie. But Weezie ran off to play with her rag doll, and I thought she had forgotten all about helping me find her little brother."

"He may be lost in the woods," cried the rabbit widow with many little children. "Uncle Wiggily really didn't know how many little bunnies there were—he was continually discovering new ones who appeared."

A serene smile came out in most realistic style by Miss H. Barr and Mr. P. W. Woods. Other numbers presented during the programme were: Piano solo, Miss L. Butterfield; recitation, Miss W. Greenwood; vocal solo, Mr. Stapleton; cornet and mellophone duet, Messrs. D. and H. Montague; musical monologue, A. A. Veale; fancy dance, Miss G. Taylor; vocal solo, Miss Norah Jones; classical dance in costume, Miss I. MacDowell; vocal solo, Mr. McManan.

Mr. Butterfield acted as chairman, and Rev. A. L. Nixon expressed the thanks of the congregation to all who had so generously assisted in the success of the affair.

Aeroplane Fell and Aviator Was Killed

Boston, May 4.—On the day chosen by the Army and Navy Club of Boston to award him, among others, honors for his record of safe flying, Alexander V. MacAuley of the Massachusetts National Guard was fatally injured when his aeroplane plunged 800 feet to the mud flats of Boston Harbor on Saturday. He died in the afternoon a few hours after the accident.

Private Angus D. MacPhee of Chelsea, a passenger, was severely but not fatally injured. The aeroplane was wrecked.

MacAuley, a world war pilot, made his home in Beverly, Mass.

Along through the woods hopped Mr. Longear. Now and then he would stop and call:

"Where are you, Wizzie? Come home and have your face washed." But there was no answer except the wind rustling the new leaves on the trees, and the rabbit gentleman hopped on a little farther. Finally, he met a little old hoptoad lady, who was jumping up and down in one spot, never going ahead or backward.

"Have you seen that little rabbit, Wizzie?" asked the bunny gentleman.

"No, I'm sorry to say I haven't," answered the hoptoad lady. "I would go with you and help you look for him, but I must stay here and jump up and down to churn the butter."

Then Uncle Wiggily saw that she had a bottle of sour milk tied to her back, and by jumping up and down, as she was doing, the hoptoad lady was making butter. For it is by jumping and joggling sour milk and cream that butter comes, you know. Wishing the hoptoad lady good luck, Uncle Wiggily went on through the woods, looking for the little lost rabbit boy. And at last the bunny uncle-daddy, feeling sleepy, sat down on some soft moss, with his back against a big tree, and closed his eyes.

Uncle Wiggily had not slept long before he was suddenly awakened by feeling some one call his left ear. Quickly he opened his eyes. But he saw no one and thought he might have dreamed it. But again he was awakened, and this time his right ear was tweaked.

"I don't dream that!" cried the bunny, for the pain could still be felt in his ear. And then, looking closely at the tree against which he had been leaning, he saw a hole in the hollow part, and something moving in there.

Quickly putting his paw down inside the hollow tree, Uncle Wiggily hauled out Wizzie—the missing little rabbit boy.

"Did you pull my ears, Wizzie?" asked his new daddy.

"Yes, ma'am—I mean yes, sir, I did," said Wizzie. "I just couldn't help it when I looked out of the hole where I was hiding and saw you asleep down there. Look what a nice hole I found to hide in," and he pointed to the one in the hollow tree.

"You had better not get in that hole again," said Uncle Wiggily, quickly.

"Why?" asked Wizzie.

"Because it's the best hole of the old, big owl bird," said the bunny daddy. "And if the owl comes home and finds you in her nest she will scratch you and bite you!"

"Oh, take me home quick! I'm not going to run off and hide any more!" cried Wizzie, catching hold of his new daddy's paw. "And I'll never pull you ears again!" he promised. But Wizzie played other tricks, just as mischievous. And if the gas stove will make a lolly-pop pie for the blackboard to take to school, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's red vest.

London, May 4 (Canadian Press Cable).—Opinion seems to be general that the real domestic battle on the budget will arise over the industrial insurance proposals, to which every member of the Baldwin Cabinet is entirely committed. Silk stockings and their fiscal implications probably will come a good second. The return to the gold standard is hardly a matter upon which the ordinary man can venture a technical opinion, but the prospect which the industrial insurance proposals seem to offer in the eventual abolition of the wasteful poor-law system and the establishment of a true and lasting peace basis between employers and employed naturally strikes the imagination of every dweller in the United Kingdom.

To garnish fish and meats with lemon is a stylish custom which all housewives should follow for a reason other than its style.

The presence of the lemon starts the digestive juices flowing, and digestion is half done when that has been accomplished.

Then there are vitamins in lemon juice. And organic salts and acids which are direct digestive aids.

shed upon the question of tariff preferential rates for the dominions, although it is notable that The Spectator, in a review of the general principles of free trade, refuses to be completely excited at comparatively small matters like these. The newspaper merely says these preferences will do some practical good and that their moral in the dominions will do more good.

As to the revival of the McKenna duties, The Observer remarks that it is grotesque to call them protectionist or to make any fuss about it.

It is like quarrelling over farthings. The opponents of the tax on silk are confident it will be considerably whittled down. The tax undoubtedly has raised considerable hostility in the textile districts, where even the supporters of the Government are uneasy. The Yorkshire Post, for example, while admitting Parliament would probably have increased in price, says the tax here is a luxury tax.

"Mr. Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer," it declares, "has not seriously affected the garments of the working girl, nor has he threatened to place silk stockings out of the reach of those now wearing them. It may be perfectly true to say artificial silk is no longer a luxury, but even if the tax does fall upon a necessity, it falls over such a wide field that it practically will not be felt by the myriads who contribute."

With regard to the rebate on exports which the Treasury suggests may be arranged, the textile traders are not convinced such a rebate would prove workable. It is alleged the same duties also will impose

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT EVERYONE SEE

Gloria Swanson

in Madame Sans Gene

(MADAM DEVIL MAY CARE)

Because—

Except in the opening scenes no stage settings of any description were used. Through the co-operation of the French Government and the Ministry of Fine Arts, the palaces and grounds of Fontainebleau, Malmaison, Compiègne, were for four months given over to the making of "Madame Sans Gene," and Napoleon's Court is brought back to live again amid the scenes of its old-time splendor.

The foremost feminine stars of every nation have played this classic, but never before, and probably never again, have the art treasures of a nation been contributed to provide an authentic background for a famous play.

Gloria Swanson, now the Marquise de la Falaise de la Coudray, plays the most celebrated French role of all times, a role packed with comedy, pep, fashion, love and adventure—that of a girl who rose from laundress to duchess, whose crudities were the despair of Napoleon and his Court.

The finest players in France were chosen for the supporting cast, including Emile Drain, the Comedie Francaise star and the greatest impersonator of Napoleon of all times.

It's Gloria Swanson's Greatest Triumph!

London, May 4 (Canadian Press Cable)—Marked by intense excitement right up to the last moment, English football made its exit on Saturday and the 1924-1925 playing season was written off the books. All problems of promotion, relegation and of championships were solved Saturday and it is noteworthy that for once these were decided without any complications arising out of clubs aggregating the same number of points, but their fate resting on goal averages.

Esquimalt and the Veterans will have to play off for the championship of the First Division Football League. On Saturday afternoon both clubs came through with victories and as they were tied for the leadership of the league the teams still occupy the premier berth. It is expected that a sudden death match will be staged to decide the cham-

The results of Saturday's matches were as follows:
 Equumalt 3, Victoria Wests 1.
 Veterans 3, North Wards 1.
 In the game at the Royal Athletic Park between the green-shirts and dockers the former team was greatly handicapped through being without the services of Shandlev, their goalie, Bb Whyte and Cyril Baker. The game had only been under way for about fifteen minutes when Tommy Watt opened the scoring with the prettiest goal of the game. Securing the ball in midfield he carried it down past the Wests' defence and beat Sid Sherratt with a low shot. During the half Esquimault were continually on the attack but their shooting was poor, while Sherratt, who acted as goalie for the Wests, made some fine saves. The Wests had a couple of openings but failed to take advantage of them. At half-time Esquimalt was leading by their lone goal.

From the start of the final half the greenshirts attacked the Esquimalt citadel and Nicol was called upon to block several fast shots. The Wests were determined to tie up the score and they carried the ball into Esquimalt territory on a combined rush, and during a general melee in the dockers' goal Passmore managed to get his boot to the ball, sending it into the net. From this stage on Esquimalt had the edge and the Wests' back division was kept busy keeping their goal clear. During a scrimmage in the greenshirts' goal-mouth Popham picked the ball up when it was about to roll into the goal and Esquimalt was awarded a penalty. Mesher, who took the kick, placed the ball between the sticks. The Wests exerted every effort to tie up the score but the Esquimalt back division stayed off all attacks.

Just before the end, when the Wests had all their players up the field in an attempt to score, Tommy Watt broke away and scored with a pretty shot from close quarters.

McMillan refereed and the teams were as follows:
Esquimalt—Nick, Mesher, J. Watt, Hosmer, Edwards, Hay, Stewart, John Watt, Tommy Watt, Warren and Davidson.

Victoria Wests—Sid Sherratt, Copas, Muir, Davis, Thomas, Popham, J. Sherratt, Passmore, Peden, Mulcahy and Butler.

match at Beacon Hill, between the Veterans and North Wards, were treated to plenty of thrills. In the first half Davidson, one of the Wards' full-backs, was sent off the field for hitting Clarkson. An accident occurred in the second frame when Owens and Roberts came together and both had to leave the field. A bad cut over the eye kept Clarkson played out for the remainder of the game.

In the first half the Wards had the wind at their backs and they attacked the Vets' goal from the kickoff, but the redshirts put up a strong defence and cleared the ball well. The Vets broke away on several rushes but their shooting was erratic while they were bothered by the wind. At half-time neither

With the wind and slope in their favor the Vets commenced the second half by opening the scoring when Preston beat Dowds with a beautiful shot from right wing that sailed over the goalie's head into the net. The same player sent in two nice shots a few minutes later, but both hit the cross-bar. During a scrimmage in the Wards' goal

Tommy Southern scored the very second counter. Preston secured his second goal of the match towards the end of the match when he booted Clarkson's perfect centre into the goal. The Ward's lone counter came

Wall Street TO-DAY

Last Minute News on Stocks and Financial Affairs

New York, May 4 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Activity was more pronounced to-day, and public participation on the buying side of the market increased, the outside demand for stocks making its appearance in various departments with the rails and the oils seeming to be the more favored ones. Some of the leading industrial shares were also in rather spirited demand, and the aspect of the whole market seems to have changed for the better. Sentiment is gradually being converted to the constructive side of values, and this should be reflected in a better market.

The tone of the business reports being received indicates a restoration of confidence in the commercial and industrial channels, and should be reflected in the bonds and security markets.

Railroad manager talk involving several of the leading carriers and the smaller transportation lines is a lively topic at the present time, and the impression seems to be gaining ground that in the coming few months developments of such a nature as referred to will probably begin to take definite form. Consequently there seems to be good reason for believing that an active period of speculative and investment buying in the rails is likely to assert itself at this juncture. This group of stocks we believe will feature the next important swing in prices on the upside.

New York, May 4 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—The Wall Street Journal's stock market edition this afternoon says: Bullish enthusiasm was in evidence to-day. With wheat rallying robustly and sterling close to the end of its journey back to parity, stocks of all kinds showed substantial advances. In a number of high-priced industrials the upsurge of prices attained sensational proportions.

U.S. Realty, Associated Drygoods, Sears, Woolworth, American Ice and Coca Cola moved ahead in a sensational manner, while the buying of the rails was the most urgent character Wall Street has witnessed in a long time. Stocks maintained a strong tone at the start.

Further stimulus was afforded by the announcement over the week-end that the Government debt had been reduced $702,000,000 in the year ended April 30, and that another cut in income taxes, possibly amounting to $300,000,000 was likely as a result of the fact that the decline of 217,781,114 taken place in receipts in nine months ended March 31, despite the twenty-five per cent. reduction already effected.

Rails achieved the heaviest demand they have enjoyed in several months, moving ahead briskly under the leadership of N. Y. Central, which reached new high ground on the recovery of 11 1/2 up 1/2 points from its recent low, taking into consideration the 1 1/2 per cent. dividend deducted last month.

Carrier shares benefiting from exceptionally good earnings received particular favor. Southern Railway, whose profits are running at an annual rate of 15 a share for the common, attained a further record high at 95 1/2, while Frisco also forged in to the highest ground for its history, selling at 7 1/2 against last week's low of 7 1/2. Considerable irregularity resulted from profit-taking and heavy selling of special stocks, particularly Radio Corporation, which broke to 35 1/2 against last week's low of 61 1/2.

Weakness in Radio was due to selling by traders believing the industry was likely to be ungit by the enormous cuts being made by smaller companies in their selling prices. Radio has not cut prices, but is enjoying the best sales in its history.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, May 4 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Wheat: General news favored holders in the main, and there was a steady absorption of wheat on all the setbacks which took care of the profit-taking sales in good shape. Foreign news was more encouraging, with cables higher and a decrease on passage of nearly 7,000,000 bushels, while Argentine markets were much firmer. Receipts at all points were light, and the visible supplies showed a decrease of 2,400,000 bushels. Gulf and seaboard points showed decreases at most points. Cash sales were small, but there is no wheat pressing for sale. The best information is that foreign buyers will soon have to begin anticipating their later Spring and Summer needs. Stocks are disappearing abroad, and with the decreasing supplies on this side, the situation is stronger both for the old and new crop.

Favor buying on the setbacks, so long as there is so much uncertainty in regard to the crop.

Corn: There was difficulty in holding the bulges in corn, and the market was erratic and choppy, covering only a fair wage. The shipping sales were 75,000 bushels.

Cash prices were steady. Country offerings here. Planting is being delayed to some extent in some sections. Until there is more active buying of cash corn would not care to follow the futures. Visible stocks decreased 2,297,000 bushels and deliveries were 475,000 bushels.

Oats: May shows a tighter situation developing, and the deliveries of only 57,000 bushels with a further decrease of 1,532,000 in visible stocks checked selling. The cash sales were 20,000 bushels. The market is in a two-sided position, with prospects good, would wait for the seaboard on which to buy.

Rye: Strongest thing in the list to-day, with prices at one time 1 1/2 cents over the previous close for the May: export situation shows improvements. On the dips would buy rye, but would not follow this advance.

Chicago, May 4 (By R. P. Clark & Co.)—Firmness in cables and decrease in visible were main contributing bull

Export business continues dull but domestic demand is fairly good and all cash markets were higher. Until the Government report is issued next Friday it will be rather precarious to sell wheat excepting on the good bulges, as the private estimates were too bullish to offer encouragement to the bears.

Corn: Trade mixed. Many of the larger interests who sold early bought later and while the eastern demand continues dull, local arrivals are very light. Deliveries on the coast to-day were a little over 400,000 bushels and cash markets were steady. We see nothing in the situation to encourage investments.

Oats: The class of buying was a little better although offerings from scattered interests were sufficient to prevent much enhancement in values. The visible showed a decrease of 1,500,000 bushels, but supplies are especially heavy and we see nothing on which to base the hope for materially higher prices.

Rye: Acted very tight all day. Visible decreased 1,750,000 bushels and considerable rye that was delivered on May contracts is being shipped out.

VON HINDENBURG WILL HONOR MARX

Hanover, May 4 (Associated Press)—Political leaders who have been in consultation with President-elect von Hindenburg in the last few days believe he is determined to reconcile the German Catholic electorate to the outcome of the election and that he will single out Dr. Marx of the People's Bloc for some prominent appointment or political honor in an attempt to assuage the feeling of resentment provoked through the injection of heated religious bias into the recent campaign.

This procedure would not only be in keeping with the field marshal's desire for complete national unity, but also would ensure continuance of neutrality which the Centre party has been seeking according to the Luther Government, thus removing from the post-election situation anything likely to engender a parliamentary crisis.

Von Hindenburg is said to have quietly appraised a score or more German princes and lesser potentates that he would be greatly obliged if they would spare him displays of ardent importunities and other affectionate demonstrations regarding his election. He assured them of his devoted and respectful remembrance, but believed their adulations in the present situation were bound to become a personal annoyance and an official embarrassment.

TIMES CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

Don't turn this down just because the second word you meet is a stopper. You have the unkeyed letter, so the vertical words should help you solve it.

Cross-word Puzzle 02314

HOW TO SOLVE THE CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Every number in the form represents the beginning of a word, reading either horizontally or vertically. If there is a black square to the left of the number, the word is horizontal; if above it, the word is vertical. The same number may of course begin both as a horizontal and a vertical. The definitions for the correct words for the form are found below, with numbers corresponding to those on the form. Run through the definitions till you find one that you recognize, and put it in its proper place on the form, one letter for each white square. This will furnish several cross-clues to the words linking with it at right angles. Continue in this manner till the form is completely filled. If you have solved the puzzle correctly it should read both horizontally and vertically with words corresponding to the definitions. The correct solution of to-day's puzzle will be printed in the next issue of the Times.

UNUSUAL COURT CASE

Hamilton, May 4.—A man charged with murder, Marko Conel, was given a division court judgment against the man, he is accused of killing, Wasy Kesenwich, by Judge Evans here. The case followed the writ which Conel issued against Kesenwich to collect $146, due on a board bill and which it is claimed was the cause of the fatal fight. The claimant, who did not appear, as he was in police court at the time formally charged with the murder of the defendant, was awarded $15.65. The amount was paid into court on the garnishee order which he had secured.

MISTAKE COST LIFE

Saskatoon, May 4.—Thought to have taken a dose of formaldehyde in mistake for medicine which was contained in a similar bottle on the same shelf, Dr. J. P. R. Clancy, a physician of the town of Semana, became violently ill Sunday night, and died in less than half an hour.

SCHOOL DAYS By DWIG

CHAPTER XXIII While The Stables Burned.

"It's time I learned to prepare my own bath," I was knitting complacently. But Gertrude got up and put her arms around Liddy's shaking shoulders.

"You are two big babies," she said soothingly. "Neither one of you could get along for an hour without the other. So stop quarreling and be good. Liddy, go right up and lay out Aunt's night things. She is going to bed early."

After Liddy had gone I began to think about the men at the stable, and I grew more and more anxious. Halsey was aimlessly knocking the billiard-balls around the table in the billiard-room, and I called to him.

"Halsey," I said, when he sauntered in, "is there a policeman in Casanova?"

"Constable," he said laconically, "veteran of the war, one arm; in office to conciliate the G. A. R. element. Why?"

"Because I am uneasy to-night. And I told him what Liddy had said. 'Is there any one you can think of who could be relied on to watch the outside of the house to-night?'"

"We might get Sam Bohannon, hasn't she?"

"That's it," Liddy said, suddenly bursting into tears. "Send me away, after all these years, and your new shawl only half done, and nobody knowin' how to fix the water for your bath."

NOTED CHEMIST IS VISITOR TO CITY

Sir William Samuel Glyn-Jones Will Address Local Druggists To-night

Sir William Samuel Glyn-Jones, pharmacist and barrister-at-law, secretary and registrar of the Pharmaceutical Society of Great Britain, and founder of the Proprietary Articles Trade Association, arrived in this city on Saturday. He is on a mission to meet Canadian druggists and to discuss with them the improvement of the relations between the members of the profession in Canada and with British druggists. He is accompanied by Lady Glyn-Jones and Miss Muriel Glyn-Jones. Sir William described his mission as two-fold. He wishes to interest the Canadian Medical Association and Canadian Pharmaceutical Association in the production of British pharmacopoeia, and also to explain to Canadian druggists the British price maintenance system. He stated that the whole community stands to gain from legitimate organization of prices in business, and that the association of which he is the founder has been beneficial to Great Britain, although primarily established for the protection of the trade.

A meeting of the local druggists will be held this evening when Sir William will explain this question. He will leave for Vancouver to-night. He reports a successful tour of Canada. He has yet to visit Ottawa, and from there will go to New York, where he will spend a week before leaving for home.

PROGRESSIVES TO MEET TO-MORROW

Members Will Frankly Exchange Views on Course in Commons

Ottawa, May 4. (Canadian Press)—Important developments in the organization and policy of the Progressive Party in the House are a probable outcome of the Progressive Caucus which has been called for to-morrow. It is reported Robert Forke intends to submit to the caucus what practically amounts to an ultimatum that there must be greater cohesion as to Progressive policy or he will resign the leadership and make public his reasons for so doing. Questioned on the rumor, Mr. Forke declined to make any statement. He intimated, however, that he might have an important announcement to make following the caucus.

The fact that seventeen Progressives supported the Government on the main Budget last week evidently has created considerable feeling among Progressives. One leading Progressive who voted against the Government stated there was likely to be some "house cleaning" as a result of to-morrow's caucus. The vote was taken on Friday morning last. It is understood there have been a number of conferences between Mr. Forke and leading members of the party, with some frank exchanges of viewpoints.

An unexpected result of the vote, it is said, is that it may lead to a rapprochement between some members of the "Ginger Group" and Progressives who voted against the Budget.

GREAT SEIZURE OF NARCOTICS MADE

Two Canadians and a Swiss Held in Rotterdam While Investigation Continues

Rotterdam, May 4. (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters).—The police authorities of this city have refused to divulge the names of the two Canadians who have been placed under arrest here on a charge of smuggling narcotics into the country, but it is known one is a former bookmaker and the other a commission agent, and that both belong to Montreal. They are said to have stated they were acting for a Canadian living in Tampico, Mexico.

The drugs, which include cocaine, morphine and heroin and weigh considerably more than one ton, at a value of about $90,000, were purchased in Germany, transported to Switzerland and handed over to the Canadian, who then consigned them to Rotterdam for further transport.

The narcotics were concealed in a shipment of picture frames. Close inspection by the Rotterdam customs authorities following the receipt of information that an attempt was being made to ship drugs through Holland led to the seizure of the narcotics.

A Swiss clerk from Zurich is also held in custody with the Canadians pending further investigation into an alleged international traffic.

DAYLIGHT SAVING IN EASTERN CANADA

Ottawa, May 4.—Daylight saving went into effect in a number of eastern cities over the week-end. Rural districts, however, in most cases remained on standard time. The railways advanced the hours of commuting trains to conform with the daylight saving time, but all long-distance trains remain on standard time. Cities which changed to daylight saving on Saturday night were Toronto, Ottawa, Kingston, Montreal, Quebec, Hull, Three Rivers, Sherbrooke, St. John's, Que., and Drummondville.

U.S. IS URGED TO AVOID ISOLATION

Dean Inge Appeals to Republic to Share in Leading of the World

New York, May 4.—The Very Rev. W. R. Inge, the "gloomy" dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, said in a sermon yesterday afternoon in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine here that it was hopeless to expect much from Britain in solving the world's problems.

Great Britain was looking to the United States to show the way, he said, and if the United States would not approve the League of Nations it should give the world something in the league's place.

Pleading against a policy of "selfish isolation," he called the United States a "nation of destiny endowed with privileges and responsibilities to share it on, not only for the salvation of its own people, but for all civilization."
